A Bill to Allocate Funds for the Construction of a BBQ Station in Escondido Village

Graduate Student Council Bill
GSC-2014-21

Author: David Hsu

Submitted for consideration: June 4, 2014

Action Requested: Majority approval by the Graduate Student Council

WHEREAS the Graduate Student Council has been collaborating with the Residential and Dining Enterprises of Stanford University during the past year on the design of a slow-roast BBQ pit,

WHEREAS the estimated price of a design for the BBQ pit in Escondido Village is priced at $20,269 by the Stanford R&DE,

WHEREAS the Stanford R&DE is contributing $10,000 toward the construction of this BBQ pit,

WHEREAS the GSC has passed a previous bill, GSC-2013-6, to fund $5,000 of the BBQ pit, and

WHEREAS $5,269 of the estimated cost is still not supported by any funding sources,

THEREFORE be it enacted by the Graduate Student Council of Stanford University

THAT the GSC allocates a further $5,269 from the GSC Reserves Account to cover the rest of the costs of the BBQ pit,

THAT the GSC continues to work with the R&DE Student Housing office to finish the construction of the BBQ pit in a timely manner,

THAT the Graduate Operations division of Stanford R&DE will fund the entirety of the electrical installation, currently estimated at $5,750, after Sept. 1, 2014.
THAT a plaque be installed on the BBQ pit showing the GSC’s contribution toward the construction of this BBQ pit.
